INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the all-new 4 Week Shred 2.0, our most successful four week program's latest evolution!

For the newbies here, I'm Kim Constable, founder of the world's largest vegan bodybuilding company, The Sculpted Vegan. My company has sculpted bodies, transformed lives, and conjured up more jaw-dropping before-and-after shots than you can shake a dumbbell at, with over 500,000 people worldwide having joined our epic fitness movement since 2017. But there's one program that's carved its name in stone—The original 4 Week Shred. If you're new to this shred party, buckle up, as you're in for a wild ride.

For 2024, we have revamped this ultra-intense program to get you absolutely peeled in record time, whether you're prepping for a vacation or an event or just want to feel insanely confident in your own skin. We've taken everything that worked in the original 4 Week Shred and supercharged it with brand-new workout plans for the gym, home gym and even follow-along sessions you can do right at home.

The 4 Week Shred 2.0 is a revolutionized, no-nonsense program that pushes you to the limit and then some. With two-a-day cardio sessions, six days of weight training, and precise meal plans tailored for both vegan and non-vegan diets, you'll be astounded at the results you can achieve in just four weeks. Plus, we've added small group Zoom coaching with the weekly Ask a Coach call and 24/7 support within the Facebook Community to ensure you never feel alone on this journey. CLICK HERE to join the private Facebook group where my team of worldwide coaches and I will cheer you on.

This program is tough, and it's not for the faint-hearted. But if you're ready to commit, ditch the excuses and kick your fitness goals into high gear, the 4 Week Shred 2.0 will transform your body and mind like never before.

Let's get ripped!

All my love,
Kim Constable xo

OUR GIFTS TO YOU

GET SHREDDED

Before you embark on your shredding journey, I wanted to share the secret to how you can get a mind-blowing transformation of your own and even win one of our prize challenges. Are you ready for it?

FOLLOW THE PLAN

That's it. It's that simple. Whenever I ask any of the past winners how they achieved their insane results, they all reply with the same answer: that they simply followed the plan.

They didn't try to change it, question why it was the way it was, or complain about it. They trusted the process, followed the plan to the letter and reaped the rewards. This is what I want for you. Your success is my success.

Over the next four weeks, you must focus intensely on the job at hand and ensure that no stone is left unturned in making this shred happen. If you prioritize yourself, you really can achieve results beyond your wildest dreams. But it won't happen if you half-ass it. You must develop the discipline to show up even when you don't feel like it and consistency in action so you continue to move forward. In bodybuilding, you get the results you deserve based on the work you put in, no more, no less. The great news is that I have done all the hard work for you in creating the ultimate four week shred formula. Now, it's down to you to make the magic happen.

Before you begin, read all of the PDF guides in your customer hub at least three times. Yes, three. In my experience, many people don't read the instructions thoroughly before starting the plan. Which is madness, as it's like trying to go on vacation without a map. How will you ever get to your destination if you don't know exactly how to get there? Take your time and soak up all the information. You will have loads of questions, but they will be answered within these guides. If they are not answered within these pages, the coaches in the Private Facebook Group will help you. Now, get to it, athlete. I believe in you!

NUTRITION

This program offers two different options for planning your food. You can either follow the prescriptive meal plans – vegan or non-vegan—or create your own meal plan using the prescribed calorie and macro amount. I only recommend creating your own meal plan if you are already very experienced.

1. Prescriptive meal plans - I have made shredding as simple as possible with four calorie and macro-counted meal plans that will torch body fat. You will eat five times a day with a breakfast, post-workout snack, lunch, dinner, and evening snack on each meal plan. As the calories stay consistent at 1200 calories over the four weeks, you can mix and match the plans as much as you want for variety.

2. Create your own meal plan - If you are an experienced meal planner or have a lot of allergies and wish to create your own meal plan, then you will enter 1200 calories into MyFitnessPal and use the percentage macro split of 40% protein, 30% carbs, and 30% fat to create your meal plans. For best results, eat whole, nutritious foods that are easy to track and are as close to an ingredient swap to the prescriptive meal plans as possible. Before starting, CLICK HERE to watch a MyFitnessPal tutorial. This tutorial will show you exactly how to create your own meal plans.

The meal plans are so varied and delicious that you don't really need a refeed meal. But, I understand that some people will want it for the psychological aspect of it being a change to routine and something to look forward to. Consume this meal once a week if you feel you need it. But, if you don't feel the need for it, don't have it. There are no prescribed calorie or macro amounts for the refeed meal. Whether following the prescriptive meal plans or creating your own, you will use the Refeed Meal PDF.

TRAINING

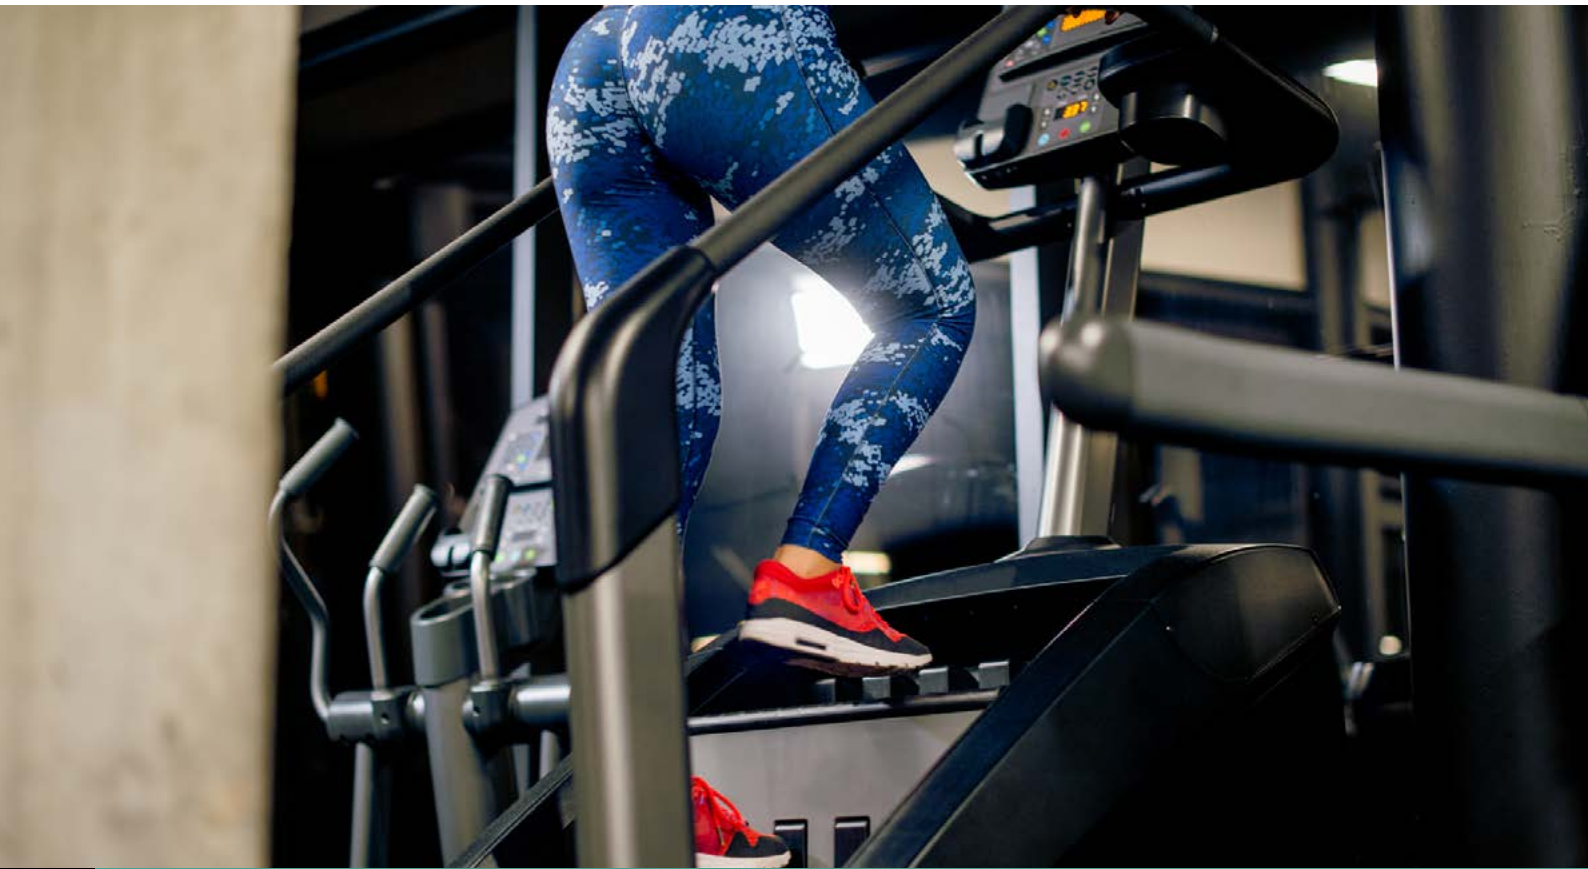
You will be committing to a six-day-a-week strength training program with plans to choose from: the gym plan, home gym plan (barbells and dumbbells), or the follow-along home workout plan. Any of these plans will help you build muscle while simultaneously shredding body fat, as long as you progressively overload your muscles in every training session by increasing the resistance or volume (or both). Your workouts should be completed within a seven-day window. You can take your rest days whenever it fits your schedule. Personally, I prefer to train Monday through Saturday and take Sunday off, but feel free to adapt this to suit your lifestyle. The most important thing is finding what works best for you and staying committed to the program.

Not sure what plan to choose? The right plan for you depends on your goals and what you can stick to consistently over the next four weeks. If building serious muscle mass is your desire, then the gym program is your best bet, as lifting heavy weights is the quickest path to creating maximum muscle gains. Before starting the challenge, watch the training "how to" videos linked to your training guide in your customer hub. These are a must-watch to show you exactly how hard you need to train to build serious muscle in the gym. Not a fan of the gym? No problem! Our follow-along home workouts are designed to challenge you while building noticeable muscle along the way. With the home workouts, you must find ways to add as much load as possible, such as using online marketplaces to source cheap or even free equipment. Always remember, more load means more muscle.

CARDIO

Get ready to superpower your shred with LISS (Low Intensity Steady State) cardio, the bodybuilder's ultimate fat-burning tool. This low impact cardio melts away even the most stubborn body fat while keeping your hard-earned muscle intact. Every day of this plan, you will perform 90 minutes of cardio split into two sessions. To help you fit the cardio in, I am giving you the flexibility to divide the 90 minutes into two sessions that best suit your schedule. For example, you could do two 45 minute sessions or one 60 minute and one 30 minute session. Whatever timings you decide, try to do at least 30 minutes to give yourself the time to get into and stay in your fat burning zone.

Whether it's binge-watching a Netflix series while slogging it out on the Stairmaster or getting your boogie on with the follow along LISS cardio that has been recorded in-house by Director of Training, Laura Hutchinson. Perform the LISS cardio at any time of the day that is convenient for you. It doesn't matter so much the kind of LISS that you do, as long as you do it correctly and consistently. So, grab that sweat towel and get ready to make that fat cry.



WHAT'S NEXT?

Head to your customer hub, where you will find your eating guide, meal plans, recipes, training and cardio guides containing all the information you need to complete your shred. Got questions? These guides will answer them. If you still have questions, CLICK HERE to reach out to the Facebook group, and my team of coaches and I will help.

Good luck with your shred, I can't wait to see your results.
